This year the family of Tony Mull has chosen Veterans Council of Union County as the recipient of the funds raised by this benefit. The Veterans Council is an ALL volunteer group of Veterans and people from the community that raise money through various fund raisers to help Union County Veterans and their families in need. An example of how funds are used from the Council; Transportation for Veteran's to VA Hospitals, rent, utilities, food, handicap ramps built and installed, providing Honor Guards, assisting with funeral expenses and arrangements for veterans that have no family.

In the last year, the Council has buried two Union County Homeless Veterans.
